

Call for papers

Dear members,

It's 6 months to CALC Singapore Conference 2026, and we are looking forward to welcoming everyone to our sunny island!

We are now inviting submissions of papers for the Conference.

The Conference theme is “Legislating in a Changing World”. We welcome papers on all topics related to law drafting, including:

- Legislative developments, especially laws that respond to contemporary issues and challenges, such as online harms, climate change, population trends, artificial intelligence, national security and international trade
- The practice of drafting, including plain language drafting techniques, professional ethics, client and project management, the boundary between drafter and policymaker, and leveraging on technology
- Drafting office management, such as attracting talent, professional development, workload and knowledge management
- Other topics essential to law drafting, such as legislative procedure, law editing, law publishing and law revision

Proposals for papers should be sent to CALC2026\_Papers@agc.gov.sg, with the subject line “CALC 2026 Paper Proposal: [Title]”.

Please enclose:

- A short abstract (100 words or less)
- A short biography (150 words or less)

Please also indicate whether you prefer to do:

- A shorter presentation (up to 15 minutes, including Q&A); or
- A longer presentation (up to 30 minutes, including Q&A) (this is subject to the availability of slots)

If you are unable to be present in Singapore and require videoconferencing facilities to deliver your presentation, please indicate this in your email as well.

We also welcome proposals for panels, workshops or activities in other formats. These proposals should also be sent to CALC2026\_Papers@agc.gov.sg. Please include a short description of the activity (100 words or less), short biographies (each 150 words or less), and the proposed length (including Q&A).

The deadline for submissions is 30 April 2026. We intend to accept papers and other proposals on a rolling basis, so early submissions are very welcome.

Thank you very much, and we look forward to seeing all of you in Singapore this July!
