

Assistant Parliamentary Counsel
Attorney General Chambers
Salary: PS28 $93,3610.96

Under the direction of the Deputy Chief Parliamentary Counsel and in accordance with ministerial policies and procedures, the Assistant Parliamentary Counsel provides a range of professional legislative drafting services and legal and Constitutional advice to His Excellency the Governor, Cabinet Ministers, Government Ministries and Departments and other Government agencies, to ensure the timely and efficient delivery of Government legislation. The post holder is responsible for participating actively in his/her professional development and training, which is designed to prepare him/her for appointment to a Parliamentary Counsel post in the Section and undertakes associated legal duties, as requested by the Deputy Chief Parliamentary Counsel and the Chief Parliamentary Counsel.

The post holder must have successfully completed articles of pupillage of 1 year to satisfy the Attorney-General.

The post holder must have a Law Degree and must be a qualified Barrister and/or Attorney of a Commonwealth jurisdiction.

The post-holder must be called to the Bermuda Bar, or eligible to be called.

Closing date: 2nd April 2025

(View full Advertisement online)

Apply online at www.govtcareers.gov.bm